

International Student/Scholar Declaration of Finances

All international students/scholars are required by U.S. immigration regulations to show proof of their financial ability to attend an educational institution in the United States before immigration documents can be issued. The University of Maine at Farmington requires that you present evidence of financial support for at least one academic year (F-1) or duration of your program (J-1).

Financial documents must be in English and clearly indicate the name of the account holder, the currency, balance available, and must be dated less than 12 months ago. Funds must be liquid or currently available. Financial documents can be faxed or scanned, but the Office of Global Education reserves the right to request originals at any time.

If you will be self-supported: submit an official, signed and stamped, bank letter or statement that clearly indicates the currency and balance available in your personal bank account. Your name must appear on the document. This document must be in English and issued less than 12 months ago.

If you will have a sponsor: submit an official, signed and stamped, bank letter or statement that clearly indicates the currency and balance available in YOUR SPONSOR'S bank account. Your sponsor's name must appear on the document. This document must be in English and issued less than 12 months ago. Your sponsor must also complete the "Affidavit of Support" below. Both documents must be submitted in order to be considered.

If you are a scholarship recipient: please provide an official award letter, detailing the amount of your scholarship. Scholarships offered by the University of Maine at Farmington do not require a letter.
